Brentford FESTIVAL 09

The Brentford Festival is one of the major community events in West London, always taking place on the first Sunday in September come rain or shine.

From the first festival held in 2005, numbers of attendees have grown from an estimated 3,000 to 10,000. Entry is free to members of the public and the festival is the perfect way for family and friends to end the summer holidays at this popular event.

Want to take a pitch? Download the form from the website or ring for a form to be posted if no internet access. Nb. Applications close 14th August 2009.
